WHAT MAKES US DIFFERENT?

Practical-based qualification
Provides valuable practical experience directly related to the qualification

Work-integrated learning
Connects theory and the practice of work

Computer-based assessments
Online assessments with guaranteed integrity and immediate results

Customised delivery model
Tailor-made delivery based on student needs, the industry and where you are in your career

Flexible learning approach
Offers learners different models of learning and examination

Improves employability
Bridging the gap between tertiary education and work readiness

Qualification and membership
Various qualifications and professional memberships to suit where you are in your career

Recognition of prior learning
Gain credits for previously completed qualifications and relevant work experience