

International sittings for SAICA qualifying examinations

Currently SAICA qualifying examinations can only be written in London, United Kingdom or in South Africa. This is based on the locations of accredited SAICA training offices.

In exceptional cases, upon written motivation to the Project Director: Education at SAICA (Janinec@saica.co.za), SAICA will consider time and cost implications of other international locations. The full cost of which will need to be recovered from candidates and/or requesting employer.

The SAICA qualifying examinations are written as follows each year

- Part I - Initial Test of Competence (ITC) – January
- Part I - Initial Test of Competence (ITC) – June
- Part II - Assessment of Professional Competence (APC) November

For further information about these examinations (including registration) please consult the SAICA website link.

Exam venues - SAICA reserves the right to change the examination venue address subsequent to it being published on the SAICA website or in the online application form.

Firms accredited to offer SAICA training programmes in the UK

There are currently four SAICA accredited training offices in the UK:

- KPMG UK Limited
- PKF Littlejohn LLP
- Deloitte LLP - London
- BDO LLP

Please note that the SAICA accredited training programme at some of these firms may be limited to people with either a European passport or access to an ancestral visa.

For further information on the training programmes please do contact AdminUK@saica.co.za.
